

Call for Essays

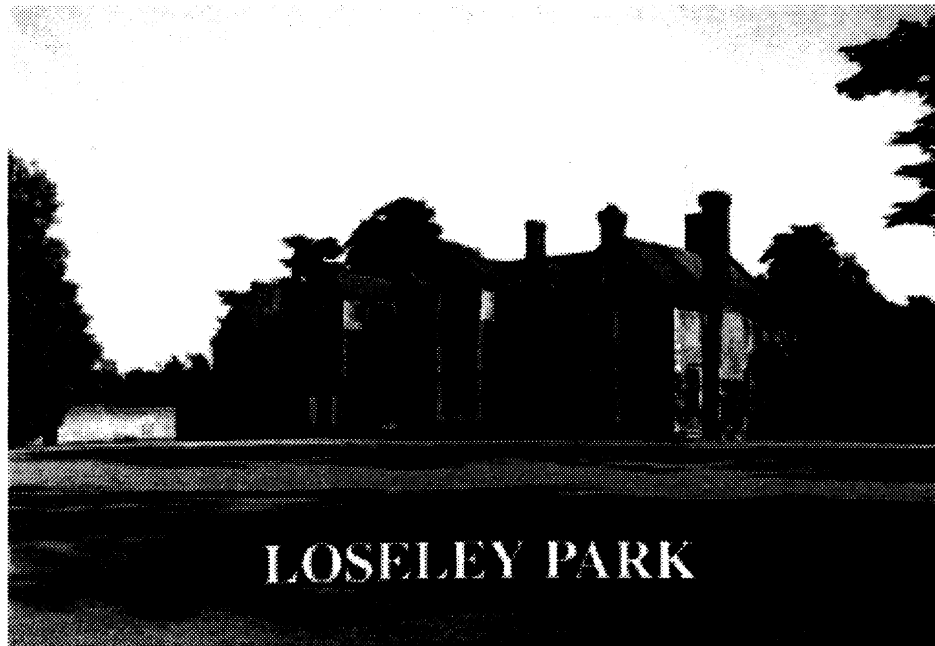

“Yes, Virginia, there really is a John Donne.”

Donne and Virginia

Submission is invited for papers on any aspect of the topic—Donne’s images of America in his poetry and prose, the contexts of Donne’s images and attitudes towards the New World, etc. But the primary focus of attention in the collection of essays will be Donne’s “images” of America. Completed papers only will be considered for acceptance, but abstracts are welcome for initial consideration and response prior to the announced deadline for completed papers. An academic press has already expressed interest in this collection.

Deadline: August 15, 2000.

To: M. Thomas Hester
Box 8105
Raleigh, N.C. 27695-8105.

DONNE RETURNS TO LOSELEY

A Conference

18-20 May 2000 at Loseley Park

presented jointly by

John Donne Journal

The John Donne Society

The Donne Variorum

For information contact:

Prof. M. Thomas Hester
Department of English
N. C. State Univ.
Raleigh, NC
hester@unity.ncsu.edu

or Prof. Dennis Flynn
Department of English
Bentley College
Waltham, MA 02154
dflynn@bentley.edu

or Prof. Gary A. Stringer
Department of English
Univ. of So. Mississippi
Hattiesburg, MS
gstring@bull.cc.usm.edu